

Pre-Course Assignment for World Changers
Cross Training 2006

Hello! My name is Jen Vettrus, and I am the track director for World Changers. Thank you for signing up for this track!

Here is a little exercise to help you get warmed up to what we will be discussing.

Read the first two chapters of the book of Nehemiah.

1) Make an outline of Nehemiah's prayer in 1:5-11. What stands out to you in it? What could you learn from it in praying for tragedies and injustices on your campus, city, country, or the world?

2) Make a list of steps that Nehemiah takes in going about convincing King Artaxerxes to let him rebuild Jerusalem. Where does he show wisdom? Faith?

3) Read verses 1:3-4 and 2:2 again. Why do you think Nehemiah has responded to the news about Jerusalem in such a dramatic way?

Pray for the eyes of our hearts to be opened during the World Changers track. See you then!
